

Create, Share, Inspire:

A Lenox Township Community Art Journal

A place for you to share your creative side with all those who love art, whether you love to draw, write, doodle or take pictures.

Remember this is to be shared with others, so please, keep all artwork appropriate; No sexual content, No vulgar language, and no knowingly offensive material of any kind.

Anything found inappropriate will be permanently covered.

No infringing on another's work for your financial gain, and please do not put your creation on another's art work or remove another's art work.

Please limit your art to two pages per checkout."

So help us bring art to your community. Each journal, (one for adults, one for kids and teens) will be available for checkout in June
